1916 COMMEMORATIONS

Apologies to the people of the town who had not heard that the event in Spa Street for Peader Macken had been cancelled, and who contacted Committee members about it. A family member travelled from England and the Committee were invited by the family to honour Peader with them at his resting place in Glasnevin. This was a very special time when his grave and that of his late parents George & Anne Macken, who lived in Spa Street, were handed over to the National Graves Association.

The planting of a Tree at Lea Cemetery to commemorate the men from the area who died in the 1798 Rebellion & to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the 1916 Rising will now take place in mid September instead of August. More details in the coming weeks.
